Before and After School Program

Ivy League Day Camp-Before and After school program will open at 6:30 AM for drop off and 7 PM for pick up. Students will be transported by the district to/from your home school. In the Morning, students will be welcomed to bring breakfast; snacks may be brought in or purchased for after school program. The afterschool program will have scheduled time for homework, as well as organized games, crafts, and performing arts. The program will be facilitated by adult parents, college age students, and qualified staff who make children feel comfortable in their surroundings. Young adults and adults are trained prior to the program on the Ivy League philosophy, with each one having the natural ability to connect with children and act as a positive role model. A thorough background check will be conducted on each employee prior to employment. Please see FAQ for more details.

Who will be facilitating the program and supervising the children?

The program will be facilitated by qualified staff who make children feel comfortable in their surroundings. Young adults and adults are trained prior to the program on the Ivy League philosophy, with each one having the natural ability to connect with children and act as positive role model. A background check is completed on each employee.

How will the Ivy League afterschool program differ from other afterschool programs?

The staff will be taking an active participatory role with the children in the program. The staff will be proactively facilitating activities in a structured camp program. Staff will not just be supervising the children but will be actively involved with children with their homework, sports/games, and creative/performing arts programs. Our camp staff understands the quality of care needed to make sure the children enjoy the aftercare program. The program will have a schedule of structured activities and club programs that will be diverse and change monthly. Students will be broken up by age, siblings can be requested to stay together.

Will my child have someone to help with homework?

YES! There will be a set time for homework to be completed. If a child needs help completing or understanding their homework, the staff will help clarify lessons and help them finish their homework assignments. One on one tutoring will also be available to work towards specific goals.

What are the program hours and what about delayed openings/half days/days school is closed?

The program will begin at 6:30 AM and end at 7 PM. If Manalapan-Englishtown has a delayed opening the before care program will begin at 8:00 AM. On half days students will be bused to camp at the end of the half day and have an extended program. Special Event Fun Days programs will be run on days the schools are closed for an additional daily charge.

Can I enroll in program on a daily basis and make changes on number of days and what days of week enrolled in program?

Yes, you can transport your child to the program and pay a daily fee. Applications must be completed before start date. Students may participate and be dropped off by parents/guardians on a daily basis. A 24 hour notice must be given and approved by the office prior to drop off. Changes can be made on a monthly basis. Please communicate any school transportation changes with Manalapan-Englishtown Transportation.

Can I enroll in Ivy League Aftercare Program if Manalapan-Englishtown does not provide transportation to Ivy League for aftercare?

Yes, Ivy League provides transportation in a mini van driven by a CDL driver to Ivy League for aftercare from Lafayette Mills and Wemrock Brook Schools. We do not provide transportation to Lafayette and Wemrock for before care at this time. Please inquire prior to registration.
