

BIG LEAGUE NEWS

Volume 2009
Issue 3

Why do you send your child to camp?

Children grow from being away from home even for the day. They come to Camp and learn new skills in human relationships. They learn to make new friends and learn to make decisions as individuals and as a community. They can test their own limits in a safe, controlled environment.

Ivy League Campers engage in human powered activities as they experience large and small group activities; swimming, bumper boats, ropes course, archery, gymnastics, tennis and other challenges. Campers continue their activity level with sports for those who excel and encourage those who are less active to enjoy the benefits of exercise and motion.

Ivy League Campers gain an understanding of the environment as they move from one activity to the next, outdoors and indoors on a daily basis.

Ivy League Campers will have the benefit of positive role models to emulate. Their Counselors are welcoming, loving, warm and understanding and they want their Campers to have fun while enjoying all that camp offers.

We are thrilled that you have decided to send your child to ILDC. We understand the awesome responsibility of taking care of other people's children. It was the best decision you could have made for your child. We look forward to the remainder of the summer with great enthusiasm and spirit.

Ivy League is full of fun,
'cause Ivy League is number 1.
From sports to crafts and swimming too,
The campers have a blast in whatever they do.
Fitness was the theme for week #3,
It flew by so fast it made us dizzy.
Cartoon week is set for #4,
At ILDC it's never a bore.
The big treat ahead is Water Fun Day,
Silly, safe fun in the pool is where we will play.
It's always great, it's always fun,
At Ivy League there's always something yet to be done.

PRE-SCHOOL
UCLA

UCLA is on its way,
The summer has been more than okay!
Swimming is a favorite by all, Layna, Jacob, Hunter, Isabella, and more are having a ball!
Go carts the children like to ride,
Justin, Jared, Michael, Carly, and Jessica like it as much as the frog slide!
Cooking is so, so yummy, Nicolette, Madison, and Brandon love to fill their tummy.
The Sports Games the kids love to play, Jordyn, Eli, Jessy, and Sofia wish they could be there all day!
Tennis has been quite a work out, Delaney, Nadia and others are awesome and never pout!
There are so many other favorites we do, the counselors Tracey, Elana, Sam, Victoria, and Jessica love camp too!

UPPER Yale

The summer of 09' has been going by very quickly; can you believe it's already been 3 weeks? The boys of Yale can be seen all over Ivy League Day Camp having BIG LEAGUE FUN! Jesse, the basketball star, can shoot with the best of them, making 3's with ease. Patrick our best archer, always seems to hit the bulls-eye. Lee, is going to be a hockey star one day, and is a Wayne Gretzky in the making. Ben and Michael are the big targets in football, scoring HUGE touchdowns almost daily. Isaac can be found zooming down the Zipline, showing no fear at all.
Jonathan our Wii Sports champion, always wins no matter if it is bowling, tennis, or baseball. Justin, the present day Pele dribbles easily around his defenders going towards the goal. Chandler and Dean, the two best Ga-Ga players with the hardest hits, can even beat the counselors. Matthew makes tetherball look like an art, beating his opponents within seconds of starting the game, he cannot be stopped! Chris G. the artist of the group, makes the nicest projects in camp, and makes sure everything is picture perfect. Chris S., our newest member to ILDC, has already left his mark as the volleyball king, spiking down the ball and carrying his team to victory.
The boys of Yale cannot wait for the rest of the summer, and wish that the summer of 09' could last forever!

The LIT's third week was one to remember. The Upper Division LIT's went to Blackbeard's Cave. Lower and Middle Division LIT's were hard at work preparing for their shows for their and at Soccer. We can't believe week 4 is already here!

CAPS

The CAPS had a great week #3 at Ivy League Day Camp! Starting on Monday, the CAPS ventured to Cooperstown, New York to visit the Baseball Hall of Fame. Jared and Matthew loved walking around Cooperstown and adding to their collection of baseball memorabilia. On day two of the trip, the CAPS made their way to Lake George where Alyssa and Laura rode every single roller coaster at Six Flags Great Escape. In the town of Lake George, Steven, Hank and Ryan screamed like little girls when they decided to take a tour through a Haunted Mansion. Boy, did they regret that decision! On the final day of the three-day trip, the CAPS went rafting on the Hudson River. Adam loved swimming through the water after a Splash War took place between two of the CAPS boats...NOT! According to Howie, however, he still won "King of the Raft" because he was too afraid to abandon his own ship. Back at camp, the CAPS had a great time at Blackbeards Cave and Seaside Heights. The counselors of CAPS are looking forward to the great memories and trips that are in store for the remainder of the summer!
