In his first season as an assistant coach, one that saw Princeton go on a 19-game winning streak including a 14-0 Ivy League season, make the NCAA Tournament after winning the inaugural Ivy League Tournament, and take ACC Tournament finalist Notre Dame to the final possession before a 60-58 defeat, Princeton led the Ivy League in scoring defense, scoring margin, 3-point field goal percentage, turnover margin, assist-to-turnover ratio, defensive rebounding percentage and 3-pointers made per game.

After the 2016-17 season, Ettin was named an NABC 30 under 30 honoree, a compilation of coaching staff members under the age of 30 from across all NCAA divisions.
